

Have you considered making a lasting gift to Gesher Jewish Day School but were concerned about how to do so?

Do you want to give something back to Gesher Jewish Day School but knew you couldn't do it now?

Create a lasting partnership with Gesher Jewish Day School to help ensure its future. Your will makes it possible.

CHARITABLE BEQUEST • AT-A-GLANCE

- Provides permanent resources to the Jewish community
 - Established in your will or trust
 - May be made in any amount — no matter how large or small
 - Provides a tax deduction for your estate
 - Your name can be permanently memorialized

By including a bequest in your will or trust, your gift will last forever. It creates a permanent legacy Gesher Jewish Day School. And your name can be memorialized, forever.

You can specify that an amount, a percent or a specific asset be given through your will or trust. You can choose a specific agency or program to benefit from your generosity. Or, you can allow the community to make decisions about the areas of greatest need.

You may choose to make a gift of cash, securities, or other property — and your estate will receive a tax deduction in the amount of your charitable bequest. If you have already drafted your will, your attorney can help you arrange a charitable bequest with a simple amendment, or codicil. There's no limit on the amount you may set aside from your estate — you may make a gift as large or as small as you'd like.

WHAT ELSE DO I NEED TO KNOW?

Your gift will provide an increasing contribution to help our community. You will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have been able to create a lasting legacy to help those in need, forever.
